Introductions of PTA board members and by everyone is attendance were made.

Treasures report:

Candy bar money and extra candy have still not been all turned in, whatever comes in now is all profit. Bookfair brought in $2,194.72 profit for the teachers. They were all able to get several new books for their classrooms.

Woodcrest Principal- Judi Kahoun:

Friday will be a Professional Development Learning day for the teachers. They will be focusing on culture, teacher/student personalization. In reading they will be focusing on Comprehension and Vocabulary. Math will be about learning targets, working on implementing our new math curriculum and doing the 'Math' Talk which is higher level questions.

Kelly Delfs- School Board:

High school and middle school students will be starting a 6 period day rather than a 7 period day. Nothing more to report.

2nd Grade Teachers:

Second grade teachers shared with us the online portion on the new math curriculum and how they are implementing this in class.

3rd Grade Teachers:

Third grade teachers went through the field trips they do and how it ties into the curriculum and what the children are learning from the field trips.

Upcoming Events:

Chuck e Cheese fundraiser on NOVEMBER 11th, from 3p-9p in Blaine.
Bingo for Books on DECEMBER 2nd.

NO PTA MEETING IN DECEMBER.
