Introductions of PTA board members and by everyone is attendance were made.

Treasures report:

A new budget was proposed and accepted. By the next meeting we will know the totals of the Candy bar fundraiser, so far it seems to be going well.

Woodcrest Principal- Judi Kahoun:

New playground rules are going well. This year the paraprofessionals are also getting the professional development training along with our teachers. Targeted after school services for at risk students will be starting up the last week in October.

PTA Liaison- Steve Brady:

Teachers are looking forward to conferences coming up soon. During the days off for MEA teachers will spend Thursday working on meaningful relationships and making lessons for all level of students. Friday they will be going to WWI for professional training with all grade level teachers from the district.

First Grade Teachers:

1st grade teachers came and presented to us a little bit of the new math curriculum Math Expressions. They also demonstrated some of the lessons they are doing with students on the whiteboards. Thank You 1st grade teachers for this presentation.
